

TEEC is a distance learning college which provides theological education for Christians involved in lay and ordained ministries in all of the major denominations. Students from all denominations are welcome to study with us. Studying by extension enables you to study at home and in your own local church and community context.

Courses are provided at Award, Certificate, Diploma and Degree levels. Leaflets for the other programmes of study are available from TEEC. All of our courses are in line with the South African Government's recommendations regarding Outcomes Based Education and Training.

special focus studies

Each course (not topic) costs the same as an Award course. You may study at your own pace. Once all four courses in a topic are successfully completed, apply to College for your specially prepared Special Focus Certificate.

Any course which you have already passed can be used towards one of the Special Focus Study topics, as long as the course fits the topic. We also encourage you to take additional Award courses and gain the full Award.

Assessment usually includes both written submissions and practical work and varies from course to course. It may include written assignments (some with a practical component) and projects.

We recommend that you take one or two courses at a time.

All of these courses (except 171 - English and Zulu only) are available in English, Xhosa, Zulu and Sotho. See the other side of this leaflet for more information.

This programme is underwritten by the participating Churches of the TEE College Council and is not registered on the National Qualifications Framework.

Please contact the TEE College for the current fees.

how to register

Registration must be on the correct TEEC registration forms and must be accompanied by payment. Registration forms and information on how to pay will all be available from 1 September. You are advised to register as soon after 1 October as you can to ensure that there are no delays. This will also give you maximum time to work through the material before writing assignments.

Registrations Open: 1 October

Closing date: 31 January

Outside South Africa: 15 January

LANGUAGES

If you want to study the course and write assignments in a language other than English, you must be very careful to write the language in which you wish to study alongside the name of the course.

For example:

E102 = English X102 = isiXhosa

Z102 = isiZulu S102 = SeSotho
